Brown College/2012 Dennis Becker Memorial Scholarship Information and Application

Since 1979, the non-profit Conclave - in keeping with its mission of educating the broadcast industry - has been awarding scholarships to deserving students desiring an education inside the radio and music industries. The Brown College scholarship - The 2012 Dennis Becker Memorial Scholarship - consists of one full tuition scholarship valued at $34,200. The scholarship is available to all new students that apply to the Brown College Radio Broadcasting Associate of Science Degree Program. The recipient must successfully enroll by meeting all admissions requirements as outlined in the Brown College 2012-2013 Catalog. The recipient must remain academically eligible and make satisfactory progress toward graduation in order to maintain their scholarship. Brown College requires that the recipient apply for any state, federal and private grant-in-aid for which they would be eligible for from the U.S. Department of Education and/or their state of residence. The recipient should be prepared to start school between May 2012 and November of 2012.

Other scholarship information and forms for other available scholarships can be downloaded from www.theconclave.com or from www.radioscholarships.com.

The Conclave scholarship programs are available for those who want a career in media/radio/TV/Internet in any possible facet of broadcasting, including becoming an on-air personality, advertising/sales, programming, writing, news, sports, production etc. Anyone of legal age regardless of sex, race or religious beliefs may enter.

DEADLINE EXTENDED TO MARCH 30, 2012! The scholarships will be awarded at the 37th annual Conclave Learning Conference to be held in Minneapolis during the summer of 2012 (July 18-20). The winner is encouraged to attend the Conference and The Conclave will provide the winner with a complimentary tuition to attend.

Applications must be sent directly to The Conclave. An assembly of The Conclave's Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and/or select broadcasting professionals or educators will judge entries. Applicants may be interviewed by telephone before final selection is made. Incomplete entries will not be judged and entries will not be returned. The decision of the judges is final.

For more information about the Conclave, visit www.theconclave.com. For additional scholarship information, visit www.radioscholarships.com.

Conclave/Brown College Scholarship Application Procedure

1. An applicant must be a high school senior, a high school graduate or have a general education diploma (GED) and must meet each individual school's entrance requirements. Visit www.browncollege.edu for specific school requirements and information.
2. Application form must be completed and submitted with an audio CD recording of the supplied script found on the back of this form. The recording must be that of the applicant. Inaudible entries will not be judged. The CD must be labeled with the applicant's name, address, and phone number for identification or the entry will not be judged. Note: only audio CD's will be judged. MP3 files, cassettes, micro-cassettes and mini-discs will not be accepted. Incomplete entries will not be judged.
3. Applicants will not have had any professional PAID broadcasting experience either full or part-time. High school radio, college radio or unpaid internship experience is acceptable. (Definition: professional broadcast experience = any job in broadcasting for which a person has received pay in any amount.)
4. Employees of Brown College and their immediate families are not eligible to apply. Conclave Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and administrative staff members and their immediate families are also not eligible to apply.
5. Winning applicants must be prepared to start at Brown College as indicated above.
6. Your application materials must be delivered (by mail, FedEx, etc.) to: The Conclave Radio Scholarship, 4517 Minnetonka Blvd, #104, Minneapolis, MN 55416. The Conclave is not responsible for applications lost in the delivery process.
7. All entries must be postmarked no later than Friday, March 30, 2012 and must be received no later than Tuesday, April 2, 2012. Only one (1) scholarship application per person will be accepted, and all application materials become property of the Conclave upon receipt. The decision of Brown College and the Conclave to award this scholarship is final.
8. The winner's decision to accept the scholarship must be made no later than 48 hours after notification. The scholarship cannot be sold or transferred. Winners must continue their education until graduation, or they may become liable to repay tuition monies used to the point of their departure from school.
9. Questions about the scholarship or the Conclave may be directed to Conclave Executive Director Tom Kay (tomk@theconclave.com) or by calling 952-927-4487 (fax 952-927-6427).
